PETITION FOR SUSPENSION OF ACTION UNDER 37 C.F.R. § 1.103(a)

Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir:

37 CFR 1.103(a) provides the grant of a suspension of action by the PTO for good and sufficient cause, so long as a reply by Applicant to an Office Action is not outstanding, the petition specifies a period of suspension not exceeding six months, and the petition is accompanied by the required fee.

Applicants hereby request suspension of action by the PTO for a period of six months.

A response to the most recent Office Action was filed December 15, 2008.

Additionally, Applicants provide the necessary showing of good and sufficient cause for the suspension of action. Specifically, Applicants are currently preparing a Rule 1.132 Declaration. The preparation of the Declaration requires the preparation of a fluorinated polyolefin, which may take several months. Accordingly, Applicants request the suspension of action in order to complete the preparation of the fluorinated polyolefin, as well as the preparation of the Declaration.

The required fee, set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(g) is submitted herewith. Accordingly, Applicants request suspension of action by the Office.
